

"The Magic of Early Childhood" Fair

Hello Friends of Early Childhood Education

McDowell County Schools Title I Program would like to provide you a booth to share your resources and information at our first Early Childhood Fair on May 6th, 2014.

The fair will be for children birth to age five and their parents/families. The fair will take place at the Welch National Guard Armory from 9:00am-2:00pm.

We will provide your organization a table and chairs for you to talk with parents and share information about your organization. If you would like to offer a mini-session for parents - just let us know!

Please confirm if you are planning on attending and need a booth. If you would like to host a mini-session that would be great too!

Confirm by April 17, 2014 by emailing Amanda Fragile at afragile@access.k12.wv.us

Theme: Magic of Early Childhood

It is going to be magical!

Our vision for this fair is to provide parents the opportunity to connect with resources and organizations that support early childhood. We hope to provide developmental information and opportunities for parents and children. The day will be packed with fun too! We will have family arts and crafts, wacky science activities, lending library, health screenings, fingerprinting, and more!

The Amazing Abacadabra Magician will perform for families!

Health Screenings for children!

Car Safety Seat Checks

Enroll for Dolly Parton's Imagination Station Library

Martha Speaks from WV PBS will take pictures with families!

Title I Family Literacy Program will provide books to build home libraries!

Mini-Sessions for parents on autism awareness, kindergarten readiness, and more!
