

Job Announcement

RVCDS is seeking a Coordinator for Project LAUNCH. The goal of Project LAUNCH is to foster healthy development of all young children birth to age eight, with a focus on the West Side of Charleston.

Local Young Child Wellness Coordinator – Lead all Project LAUNCH activities within the West Side of Charleston. The ideal candidate must have: excellent leadership, strategic planning, communication, and presentation skills; the ability to foster collaborative relationships; and experience mobilizing service systems. Bachelor’s in a social service field required, master’s preferred. 7 to 10 years combination of education, training and/or relevant experience in child development, public health, mental health or substance abuse prevention services. Must have an established presence/relationship with the West Side of Charleston. $33,500-$37,500 based on education plus benefits.

View job description at

http://www.rvcds.org/jobdescriptions/WVECTCR_Local_Young_Child_Wellness_Coordinator.pdf

Submit resume to wsmith@rvcds.org. Must pass drug test. EOE-M/F/V/D